The Iowa Section of the PGA annually awards a college scholarship in memory of Charlie Burkart, PGA member for 48 years and head professional at the Elmcrest Country Club in Cedar Rapids for 47 years. The purpose of the scholarship is to assist students in furthering their education. Each recipient receives $4,000 over a four-year period, $1,000 per year of full time attendance.

Any graduating high school senior who is a resident within the boundaries of the Iowa Section of the PGA is eligible to apply. The Iowa Section PGA is bounded on the west by U.S. Highway 71 and includes an area of western Illinois from a point north of Quincy, east to near Springfield and directly north. It includes the major cities of Monmouth, Macomb, Galesburg, Moline, Rock Island, Kewanee and Galena. It does not include the cities of Freeport, Springfield or Quincy.

Scholarship winners are selected on the basis of their interest and activity in golf and the potential for future contributions to the game, then on their academic ability and financial need.

Applicants must complete the application and mail to the scholarship committee prior to June 20, 2008.
